

Kensington Community Power Committee

The KCPC reviewed two companies that presented to the Kensington Energy Committee:

- Standard Power (SP)
- Community Power Coalition of New Hampshire (CPCNH).

Kensington Community Power Committee

The KCPC reviewed two companies that presented to the Kensington Energy Committee:

- Standard Power (SP)
- Community Power Coalition of New Hampshire (CPCNH).

These companies represent two models of power suppliers currently providing community power.

- Standard Power is a for-profit third party broker
- Community Power Coalition of New Hampshire is a not-for-profit 501(c)(4) coalition of members in New Hampshire.

	CPCNH	Broker (Standard Power)
Rates	Much lower than Unitil, update every 6 months, reserve fund built in and available for energy projects or to offset rate spikes	Much lower than Unitil, fixed for 2 to 3 years
Corporate structure
Support and customer outreach
Renewable energy
Leader in the market

	CPCNH	Broker (Standard Power)
Rates	Much lower than Unitil, update every 6 months, reserve fund built in and available for energy projects or to offset rate spikes	Much lower than Unitil, fixed for 2 to 3 years
Corporate structure	Not-for-profit with Board made up of representatives from member towns.	For-profit third party energy broker. Its rates reflect not only its overhead but also funds paid out to shareholders
Support and customer outreach
Renewable energy
Leader in the market

	CPCNH	Broker (Standard Power)
Rates	Much lower than Unitil, update every 6 months, reserve fund built in and available for energy projects or to offset rate spikes	Much lower than Unitil, fixed for 2 to 3 years
Corporate structure	Not-for-profit with Board made up of representatives from member towns.	For-profit third party energy broker. Its rates reflect not only its overhead but also funds paid out to shareholders
Support and customer outreach	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Assistance with no upfront costs: legal, planning, and educational outreach processes required to become a community power town. - Customer service to assist with any issues that may arise during the transition to and implementation of community power. - Costs are recovered post-launch through revenues from electricity sales 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - No support but the town contracts with SP as a community power consultant - No upfront costs to the town. Consultant services are funded through a per kilowatt hour implementation fee
Renewable energy
Leader in the market

	CPCNH	Broker (Standard Power)
Rates	Much lower than Unitil, update every 6 months, reserve fund built in and available for energy projects or to offset rate spikes	Much lower than Unitil, fixed for 2 to 3 years
Corporate structure	Not-for-profit with Board made up of representatives from member towns.	For-profit third party energy broker. Its rates reflect not only its overhead but also funds paid out to shareholders
Support and customer outreach	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Assistance with no upfront costs: legal, planning, and educational outreach processes required to become a community power town. - Customer service to assist with any issues that may arise during the transition to and implementation of community power. - Costs are recovered post-launch through revenues from electricity sales 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - No support but the town contracts with SP as a community power consultant - No upfront costs to the town. Consultant services are funded through a per kilowatt hour implementation fee
Renewable energy	Default %renewable up to 100% renewable. CPCNH's reserve fund will potentially provide funding for more local renewable energy projects.	Default %renewable up to 100% renewable
Leader in the market

	CPCNH	Broker (Standard Power)
Rates	Much lower than Unitil, update every 6 months, reserve fund built in and available for energy projects or to offset rate spikes	Much lower than Unitil, fixed for 2 to 3 years
Corporate structure	Not-for-profit with Board made up of representatives from member towns.	For-profit third party energy broker. Its rates reflect not only its overhead but also funds paid out to shareholders
Support and customer outreach	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Assistance with no upfront costs: legal, planning, and educational outreach processes required to become a community power town. - Customer service to assist with any issues that may arise during the transition to and implementation of community power. - Costs are recovered post-launch through revenues from electricity sales 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - No support but the town contracts with SP as a community power consultant - No upfront costs to the town. Consultant services are funded through a per kilowatt hour implementation fee
Renewable energy	Default %renewable up to 100% renewable. CPCNH's reserve fund will potentially provide funding for more local renewable energy projects.	Default %renewable up to 100% renewable
Leader in the market	27% of state's population, 44 member towns and 1 county	11 towns